

LOS ANGELES PUBLIC LIBRARY

Looking for ways to keep your kids engaged over winter break, check out the following resources from the Los Angeles Public Library. The LAPL Winter Reading Challenge, a game designed to encourage discovery through reading, coding, Neighborhood Science, and more!

This year they are also hosting a series of all-ages virtual programs on our Facebook and YouTube feeds between December 7, 2020 and January 9, 2021 including a virtual field trip to DTLA, tips for exploring your own backyard from real park rangers, and more.

Everyone can sign up and find details at lapl.org/winter in English and lapl.org/invierno in Spanish.

If you would like to be added to the Los Angeles Public Library Newsletter please email our Baldwin Hills Branch, Children's Librarian, Meredith Sires, at msires@lapl.org.
